

BBEdit Ruby on Rails Text Clippings Quick Reference

General Ruby Clippings
case
class
classi	class with initialize method
def
each
each_with_index
forin
if
method

View Clippings
General
forin	for x in y
ft	form tag
xe	<%= code %>
xx	<% code %>
Links
linka	link to (action)
linku	link to (url)
linkai	link to (action, id)
linkaitem	link to (action, item)
linkc	link to (controller)
linkca	link to (controller, action)
linkcaid	link to (controller, action, id)
linkcaitem	link to (controller, action, item)
linkp	link to (path)
Partials
rp	render (partial)
rpl	render (partial, locals)
rpc	render (partial, collection)
rpc2	render (partial, collection) in loop

Model and Controller Clippings
General
flashnote
params
session
Logging
logdebug
loginfo
Migrations
mct	create table
mcc1	create column
mcc1o	create col with options
mcc2	create columns
mcc2o	create cols with options
Redirects
reda	redirect to (action)
redu	redirect to (url)
redai	redirect to (action, id)
redb	redirect to (back)
redc	redirect to (controller)
redca	redirect to (controller, action)
redcaid	redirect to (controller, action, id)
redp	redirect to (path)
Relationships
bt	belongs to
habtm	has and belongs to many
hm	has many
ho	has one
Verification
verifyredirect
verifyrender

Using Text Clippings

- Press option-command-c to bring up the text clipping window.
- Start typing one of the clipping names.
- Hit return when auto-complete has selected the appropriate clipping.
- Tab through the inserted clipping to replace the placeholders.
- Create your own text clippings and save them in the appropriate folder in ~/Library/Application Support/BBEdit/Clippings/